

ELEC 3300 Peer Evaluation Form

Each team member will assess his/herself together with all other team members using the above rubric. For each category, evaluate each team member. All responses are confidential.

Grading Rubrics

Category	0	1	2	3	4
Contribution	No Contribution	Rarely provides idea and sometimes refuse to participate.	Sometimes provides ideas. A satisfactory group member who does what is required.	Usually provides ideas. A strong member who tries hard.	Routinely provides useful ideas when participating in the project. A person who contributes a lot of effort.
Quality of work	No work has been done.	Provides work that usually needs to be checked/redo by other group members to ensure quality.	Provides work that occasionally needs to be checked/redo by other group members to ensure quality.	Provides high quality of work.	Provides work of highest quality.
Working with others	No interaction between groupmates.	Rarely listens to, share with and support the efforts of others. Often is not a good team player.	Often listens to, share with and support the efforts of others, but sometimes it is not a good team member.	Usually listens to, share with and support the efforts of others. Does not cause “waves” in the group.	Almost always listens to, shares with and supports the efforts of others. Tries to keep people working well together.
Time management	Never show up.	Rarely get things done by deadline. Group need to adjust deadlines because of this person’s inadequate time management.	Tends to procrastinate, but always get things done by deadline. Group does not have to adjust deadlines of work responsibilities because of this person’s procrastination.	Manages time well but may have delayed for one or two things and group does not have to adjust deadlines of work responsibilities because of this person’s procrastination.	Manages time well and group does not have to adjust deadlines of work responsibilities because of this person’s procrastination.